

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

LEADWOOD

The friends of Miss Mildred Trisler were treated to a surprise on last Friday afternoon, when her engagement was very cleverly announced at an informal tea given by her sister, Miss Dixie. The prospective groom is Mr. Ernest Mason, of Leadwood, who has been frequenting this neighborhood for a number of months.

From the information that was given on a slip of paper, used as sandwich filling, we judge that there will be a June wedding.

There were seventeen guests present. Mesdames Lucile Harris, O. V. Elmore, Clarence Brycans, R. H. Leslie, Dave Cummins, Morris Harris of Benton, Karl Trisler of Oran, and Misses Bernice Blankenship, Jessie Ellis, Ruth Harris, Perle Black, Arma Amy and Dick Boyce, and Misses Margaret Beardslee and Wilma Rogains who very gracefully assisted the hostess. Miss Mildred is the second daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Trisler—Morley Banner.
